

NIA E. WHITE

Associate

(804) 864-4809
(804) 421-6251 (fax)
nwhite@moranreevesconn.com

Civil Litigation

Transportation, Trucking & Logistics

Employment

Nia White is a member of the firm's complex litigation practice group. Nia represents clients in Virginia's state and federal courts across a wide variety of practice areas, including transportation, employment, and business disputes.

Nia earned her J.D. from the William & Mary Law School and her B.A. from Virginia Commonwealth University. While in law school, she wrote for the William & Mary Journal of Race, General and Social Justice and was honored as a McGlothlin Scholars Program, a PracticePro 1L Diversity Scholar, and represented clients in the William & Mary Law School Family Law Clinic.

EDUCATION

J.D., William & Mary Law School

McGlothlin Scholars Program
PracticePro 1L Diversity Scholar

B.A., summa cum laude, Virginia Commonwealth University

ADMITTED

Virginia State Bar

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Vice Chair, Young Lawyers Division, Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Represented and advised national and international corporations in civil litigation matters including premises liability and insurance defense
- Obtained defense verdict by successfully defending a claim for a motor vehicle accident case where both liability and damages were at issue
- Drafted successful motion to dismiss in the Western District of Virginia on behalf of a global retailer facing claims of Title IX discrimination claims
- Drafted a successful demurrer on behalf of a global retailer facing negligent retention, respondeat superior liability, and
- On behalf of a global retailer facing breach of contract claim, drafted a plea in bar as to statute of limitations

